

2011 Expat Show Beijing

Written by

Thursday, 20 January 2011 15:56

The Expat Show Beijing has been successfully held for 3 years. It is an exhibition where you can find everything you need to feel at home. The last Expat Show Beijing has been successfully presented on March 26th-28th. 2010. It remains the biggest gathering of the Foreign Community. By visiting the show you will find everything you can imagine for your daily life in Beijing. The 4th edition of the Expat Show

Beijing will be held from March 25

th

-27

th

, 2011 in the China World Trade Center. In order to improve the experience of the attendance, many new activities will be set up during the Expat Show 2011: The "Live Performances" with all the International Schools performing with their students will entertain you Saturday and Sunday and last but not least a fantastic "Cuisine Festival" will let you enjoy what Beijing Cuisine can offers. From Groceries, restaurants, wine... every food lovers will be fully satisfied all over the week-end.

One more time the Expat Show will bring you the opportunity to meet many people, find everything you need, entertain your kids and spend a great time. We look forward to seeing you all very soon next in March.

For more information, please check www.weacn.com/expatshowbeijing/

or you can contact:

Adrien Vicard

Contact tel:

+86 15021589123

Contact email:

adrien@weacn.com

Contact fax:

(+86)(0) 21 5058 665