International Mobile Phone Industry Exhibition & Forum

Written by
Monday, 25 June 2012 17:29

An international grand event for establishing a complete mobile software and hardware industrial chain, providing a high-value industrial platform for both the upsream and downstream enterprises to display products, conduct business matching, promote business and products, and paraphrase mobile industry development trends.