By Mary Liu

Our strategic port city is ready to enjoy unprecedented development opportunities, under the recent Beijing-Tianjin-Hebei Integration Plan for the construction of a world-class city cluster centred around Beijing and Tianjin. The Binhai New Area, in particular, is gaining momentum as 'the third growth pole in China'.

The addition of the Tianjin CTF Finance Centre, which is 530 m tall, is expected to play a dominant role in the area to create a prosperous, liveable, smart environment for businesses and the society.

The Tianjin CTF Finance Centre is being developed by New World China Land Limited, the flagship China property arm of Hong Kong-listed New World Development Company Limited and an early Hong Kong pioneer entering the China property market.
